

Jyothsna Krishnan

Regulatory, Drug Development & Manufacturing Director [EFPIA]

Jyothsna Krishnan graduated in Biochemistry from University of Madras as well as completed a Ph.D. in Neuroscience from Katholieke Universiteit Leuven.

Dr. Krishnan has worked as a Postdoctoral Scientist, 11+ years at GSK in various positions - mainly in Global Regulatory Affairs and Global Product Quality until 2022. Then, she became the Regulatory, Drug Development & Manufacturing Director at the European Federation of Pharmaceutical Industries and Associations (EFPIA).

Dr. Krishnan has extensive knowledge of pharmaceutical regulations in the European Union, Emerging Markets & Asia Pacific Region with end-to-end drug experience and broad policy & advocacy expertise. What's more, she also has experience working in a scientific publishing house in India.